Notes of the Diamond

Tom Messitt, Richmond's veteran catcher, and Jerry Hurley, backstop for Elmira, are old friends. When they met at Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon each uncovered to show the other his bald spot.

Paul Davis, the giant first baseman of Elmira, and George Smith, the Colts' hard-hitting centre fielder, played against each other in the Tri-State League last season.

Hank Ramsey has a Spanish pitcher on his team. He is a left-hander, and comes from the Pacific coast.

Manager Ramsey said yesterday that his big first sacker, Davis, hit a line drive at Fortsmouth last week that knocked a beard off the centre field fence of the Truckers' farm. That was driving it some.

Fans who gather at the park this afternoon will find new steps and appoaches to the grand stand. The improvements to the park are about completed,

The committee in charge of the races have decided to add a motor-beat race to the events, in order to add to the general interest. The races are to be held under the auspices of the committee in charge of the celebration of the home-coming weeks.

FORFEITS GAME

Orange and Blue Nine Fails to Show Up and High School Claims Match by 9 to o.

Richmond Academy's baseball team failed to show up for the game with Richmond High School vesterday afternoon on the Seminary grounds, and doubtless will be forced to forfelt the match unless arrangements are made for playing the game/outside the schedule prepared for the Interpreparatory School League.

Owing to the threatening weather of yesterday the Academy team was probably found unprepared for the contest, but as the High School men were out on the diamond and reported the ground in good condition, the West End nine seems likely to have lost the chance of meeting their opponents in the second scheduled game of the season between these aggregations.

BLUES' ARMORY

Subcontractors Estimate on Steel and Concrete Inverior Construction.

Messrs, Averill & Hall, of Washington architects for the Blues' Armory and markethouse, were in Richmond yesterday in consultation with Contractor John T, Wilson in regard to some structural problems pravious to the awarding of subcontracts, When the Council authorized the change from wooden joists and floors to fire-proof construction the estimate was made on relinferced concrete work. Since then the price of structural steel has been materially reduced, and the architects are figuring on the substitution of steel beams in some places where reinforced concrete arches are called for. If the change is made the building can be complisted in less time, it would not affect the amount of the contract and would only have to be authorized by the Committee on Grounds and Buildings and the Building Inspector and City Engineer.

ALL AMERICAN TEAMS PLAY

Chicago White Sox Journey to Tigertown and Cleveland Naps Play at St. Louis.

The pennant race in the National League begins to-day throughout the circuit. In the East Brooklyn will open with the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds and Philadelphia starts with the Doves in Beantown. In the West the Pirates journey to Reddand to begin a series with Clark Griffith's Cincinnati team, and Roger Bresnahan will take his young Cardinals to Chicago to engage the world's champlot. Baseball enthusiasts are anticipating another close race in the National League thils season. The loss of Kling by Chicago and Bresnahan by New York weakens those trams to some extent. Pittsburg has strengthened her one weak spot—first base—by the acquisition of Abstein from the Eastern League. This team sloo has acquired some good young pitchers to ald the veterans. Philadelphia has the best team in years, and should be a strong contender for first place. New York has a strong pitching staff with Mathewson, Raymond, Ames, Wiltse, Marquard, Crandall and Durham.

Clark Griffith's Cincinnati team is a strong one, and the former Yankee manager believes that he will give the "Big Four" a hustle. Boston, St. Louis and Brooklyn also have done some, strengthening, and they do not propose to be such easy pickings for the leaders as in seasons past.

The Western teams of the American League also begin the pennant race to-day. The Eastern teams opened the season Monday, and have played two games, each of the four winning one and losing one. Chicago opens at Detroit and Cleveland at St. Louis. New York again plays at Washington and Beston at Philadelphia.

The Southern League season begins to-morrow, and one week from that date the Virginia League season begins. On the same date, April 22, the Eastern League will start its race.
